June 1: INSANITY: THE MOVIE goes on-line

Florida-based filmmaker Richard T. Celenza Jr. of SoreLosers Productions has opened an official site for his new feature INSANITY: THE MOVIE, which you can find here with photos, a trailer and more. An action thriller with horror overtones, the Chicago-lensed INSANITY is about a detective investigating the murder of his forensic pathologist father, who was killed after creating a device that could revolutionize criminal investigation. Celenza is also working on a graphic novel adaptation of INSANITY with Knight Shift Studios and a video game version in collaboration with the Full Sail company; you can see a demo of the game here. —Michael Gingold
